

UK - 10P
NO. 46 00748
JUN 76/CDC

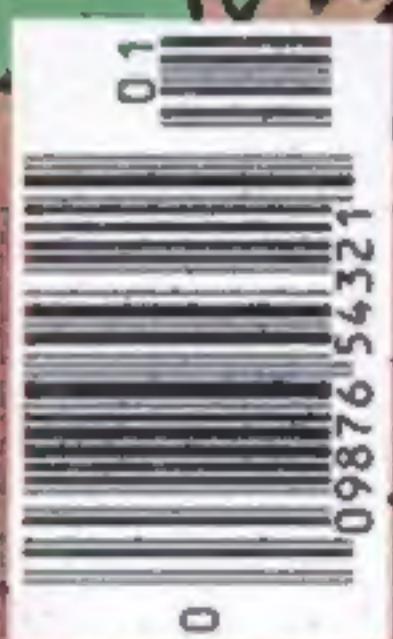

ALL NEW

The FLINTSTONES and PEBBLES

a Hanna-Barbera
Production

00748

RAY
DIRGO

The FLINTSTONES Job Snobs!

FLINTSTONES

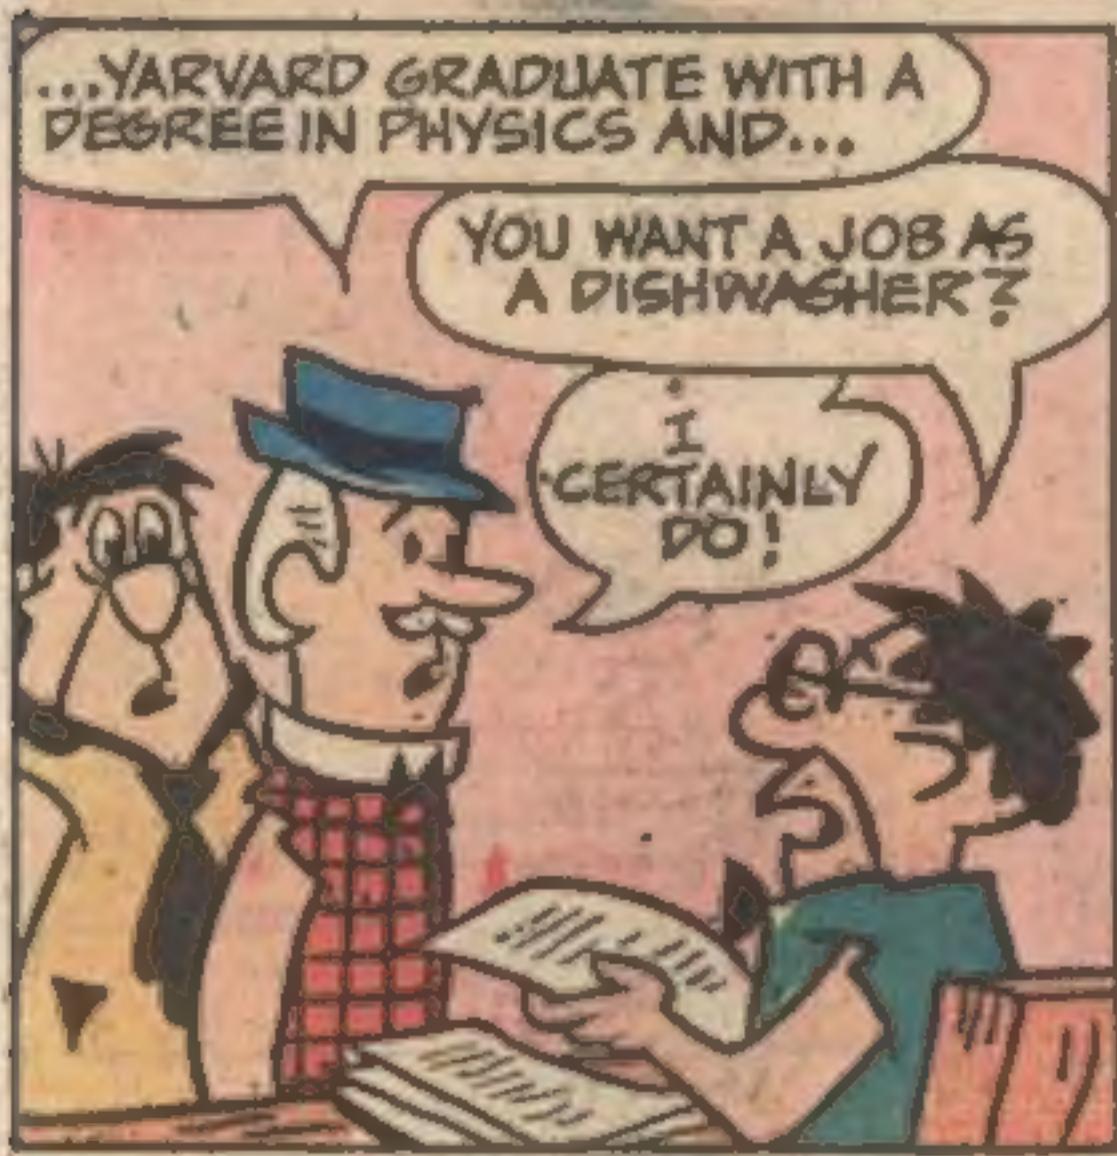

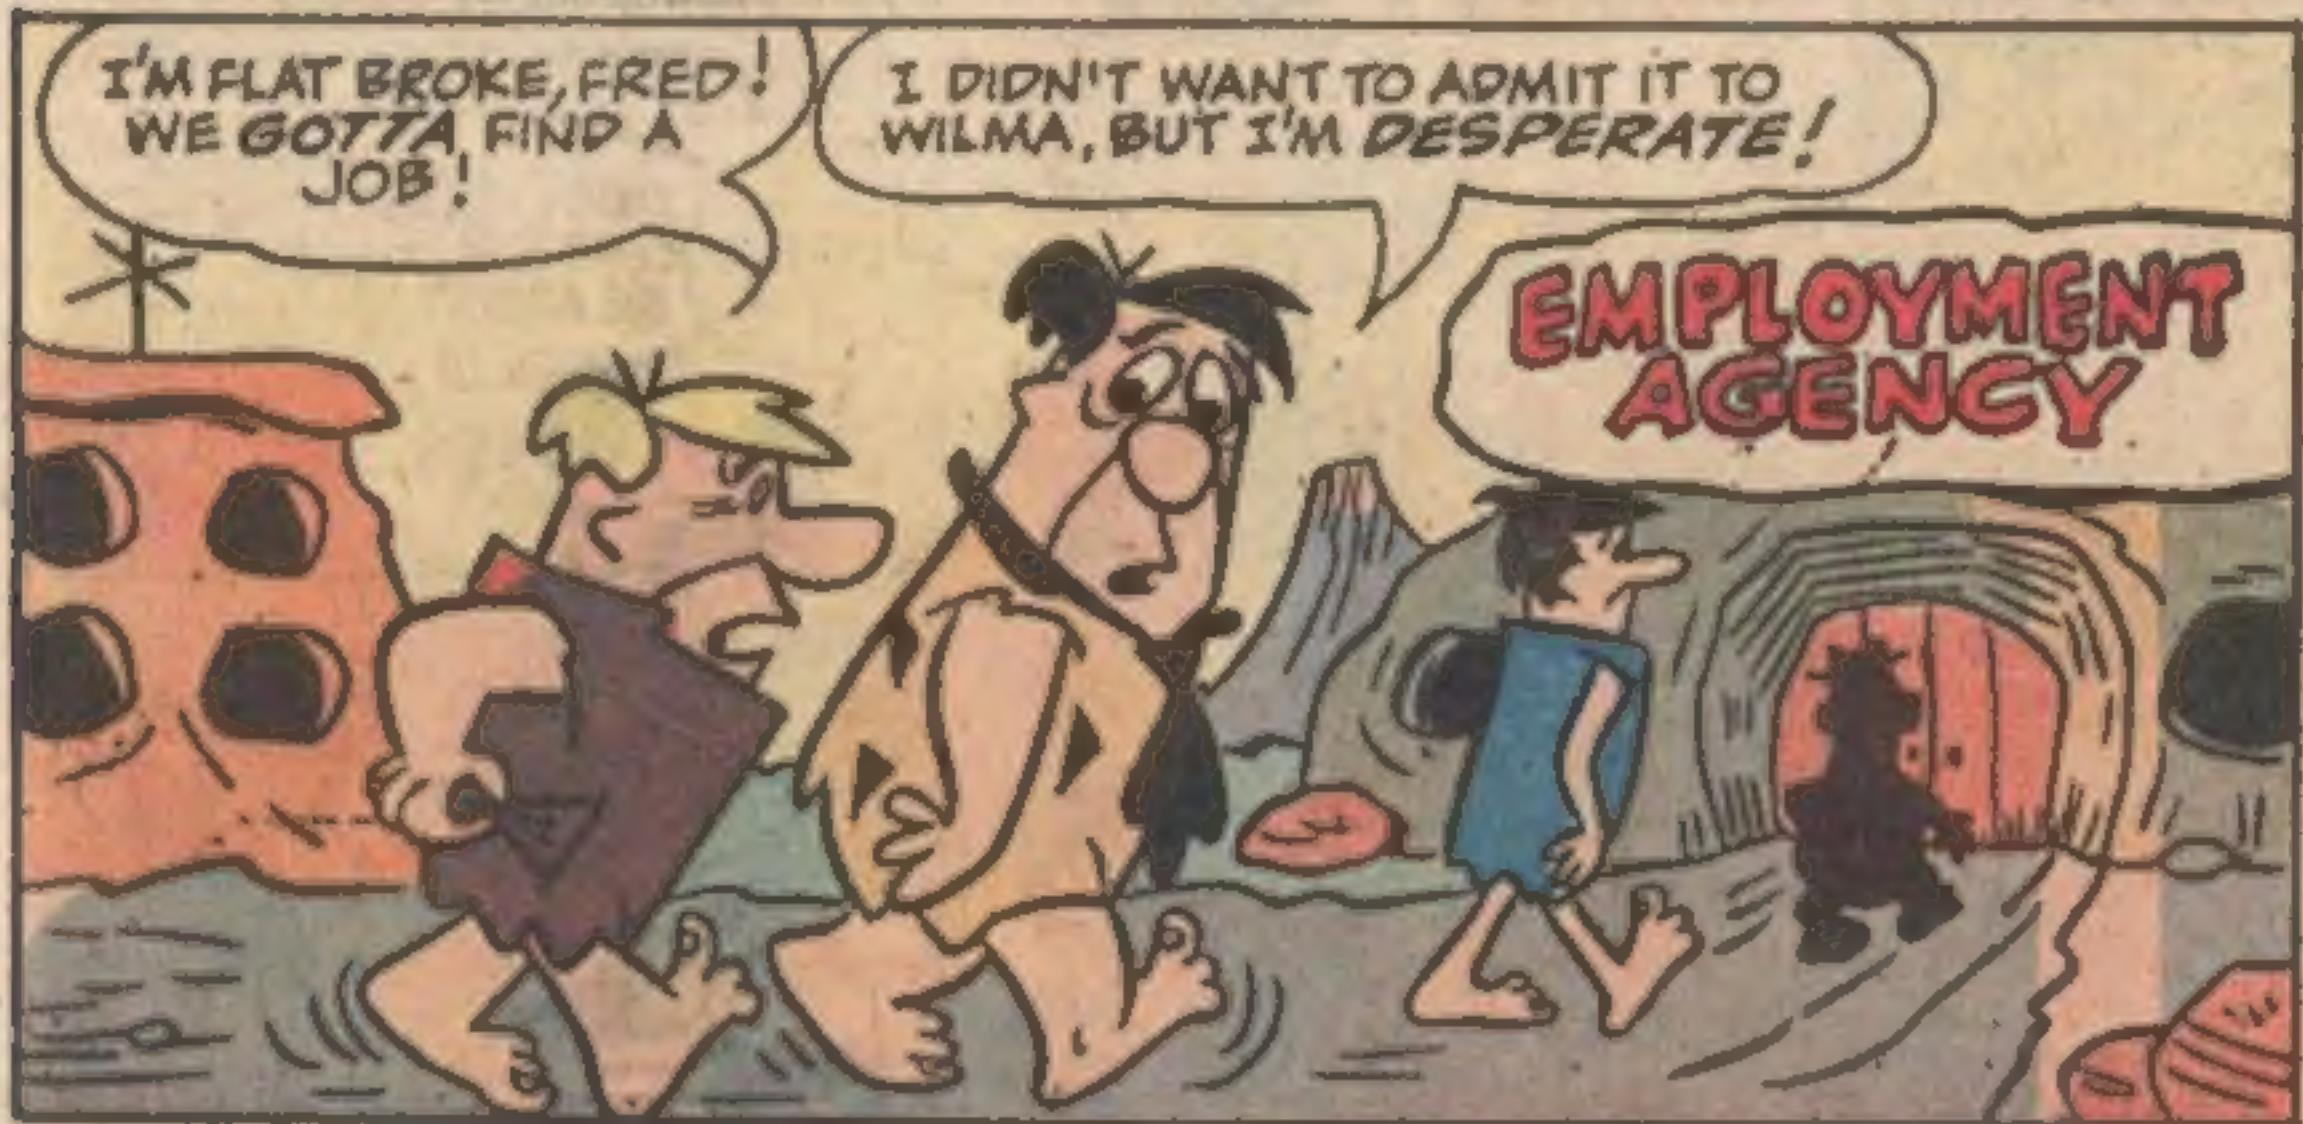

THE FLINTSTONES Vol. 7, No. 44, June, 1976.

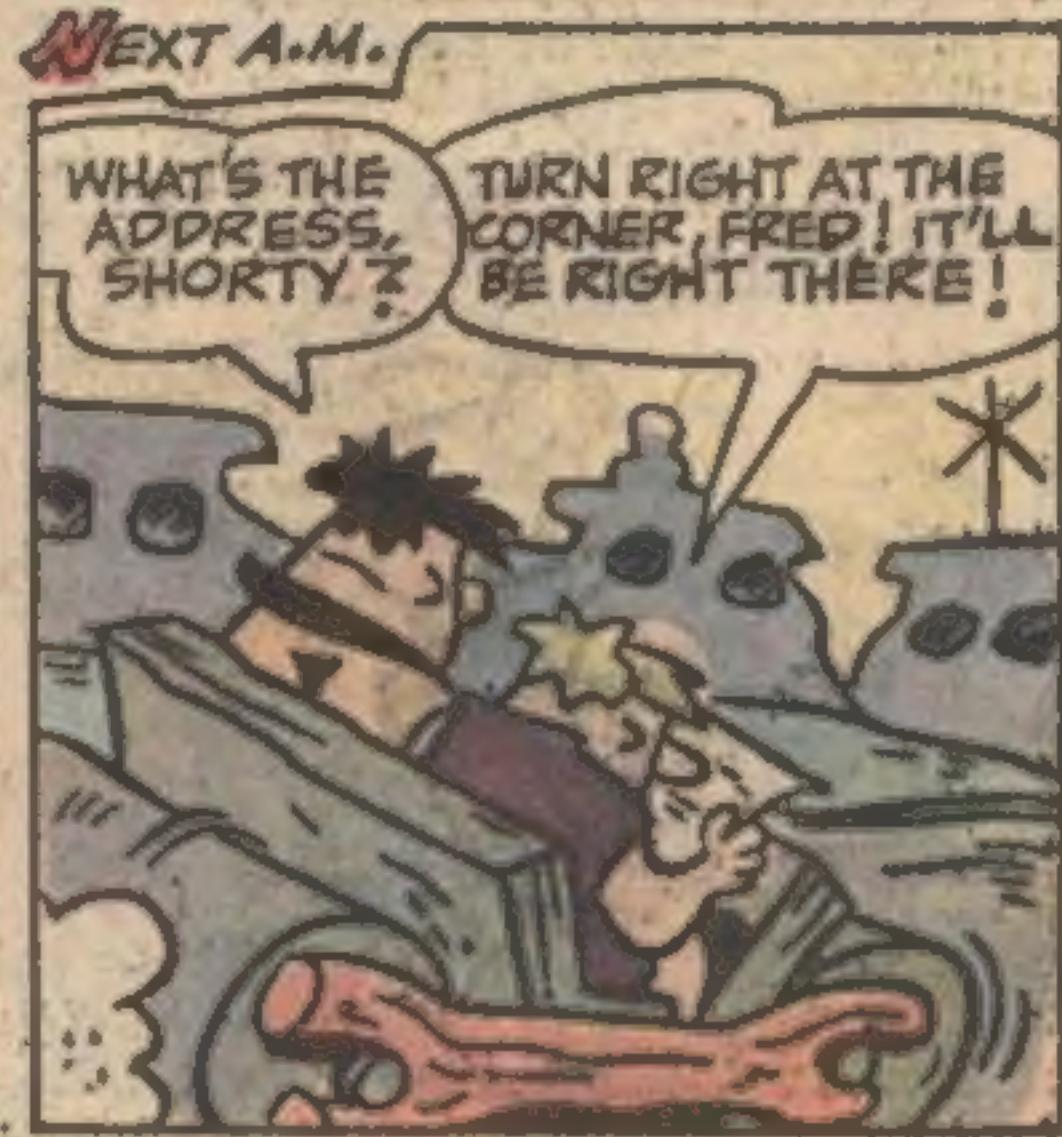

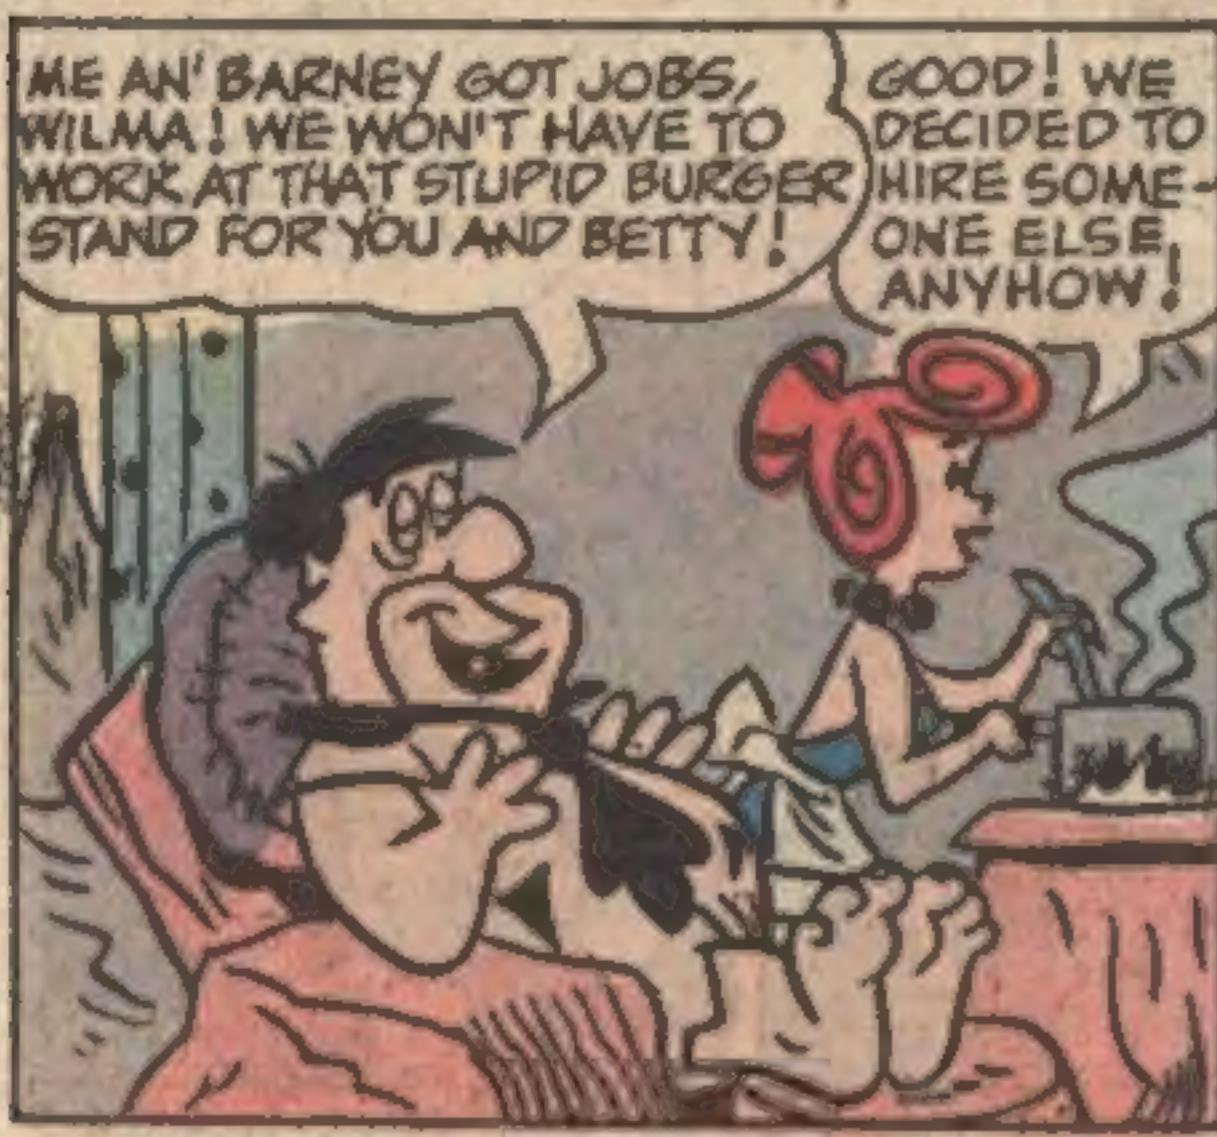

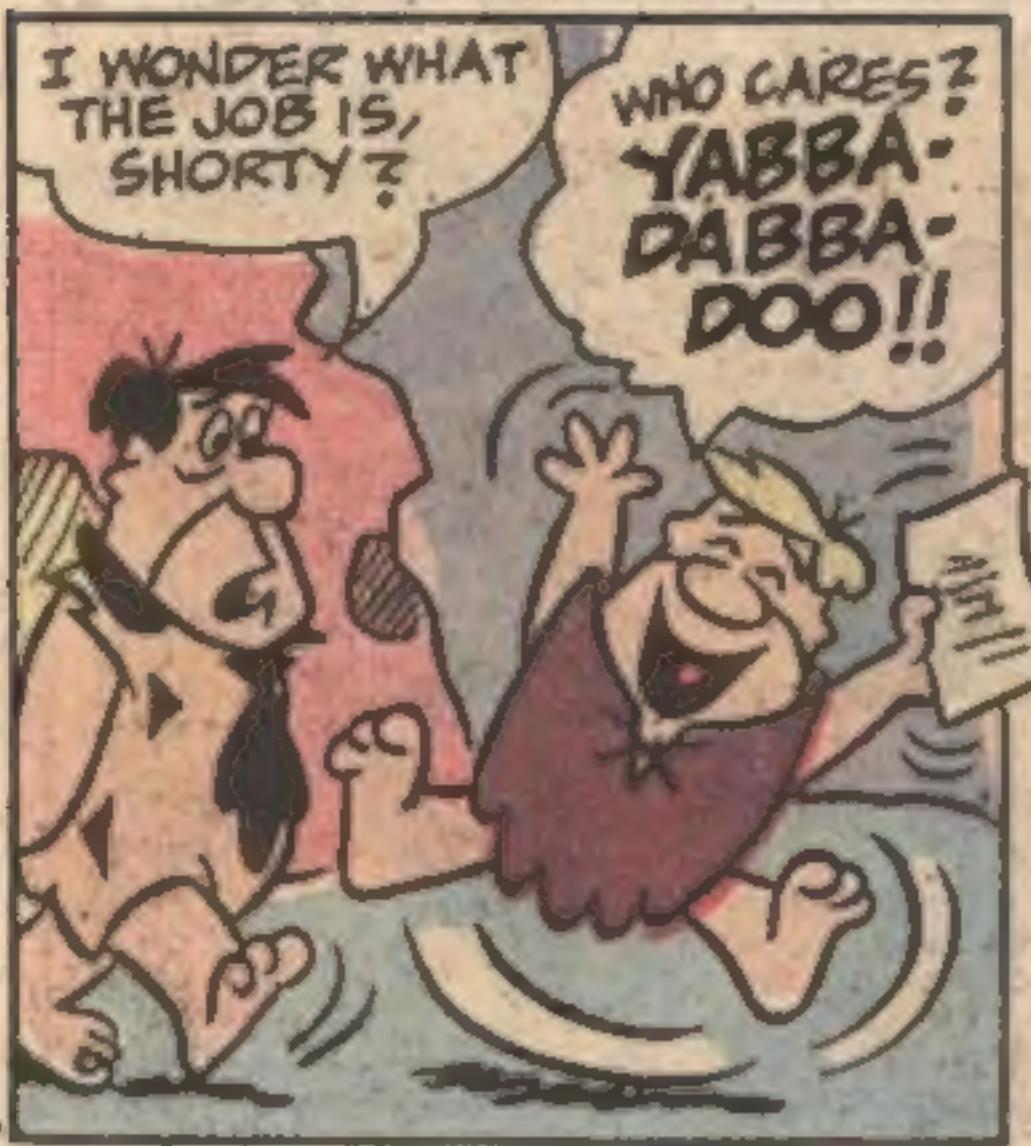

Published every six weeks by CHARLTON PUBLICATIONS, INC., at Charlton Building, Division St., Derby, Conn. 06418. John Santangelo Jr., Publisher. George R. Wilson, Managing Editor. Second class postage paid at Derby Conn. 06418. 20¢ per copy. Subscription $1.00 annually. Printed in U.S.A. The stories, characters and incidents portrayed in this periodical are entirely fictitious, and no identification with actual persons, living or dead, is intended. This magazine has been produced and sold subject to the restrictions that it shall only be read at retail as published and at full cover price. It is a violation of these regulations for this magazine to be offered for sale by any vendor in a mutilated condition, or at less than full cover price. National Advertising Representative: Gile, 114 E. 32nd St., New York, N.Y. 10016 (212-686-8858). © 1976 HANNA-BARBERA PRODUCTIONS, INC. International copyright secured. All rights reserved.

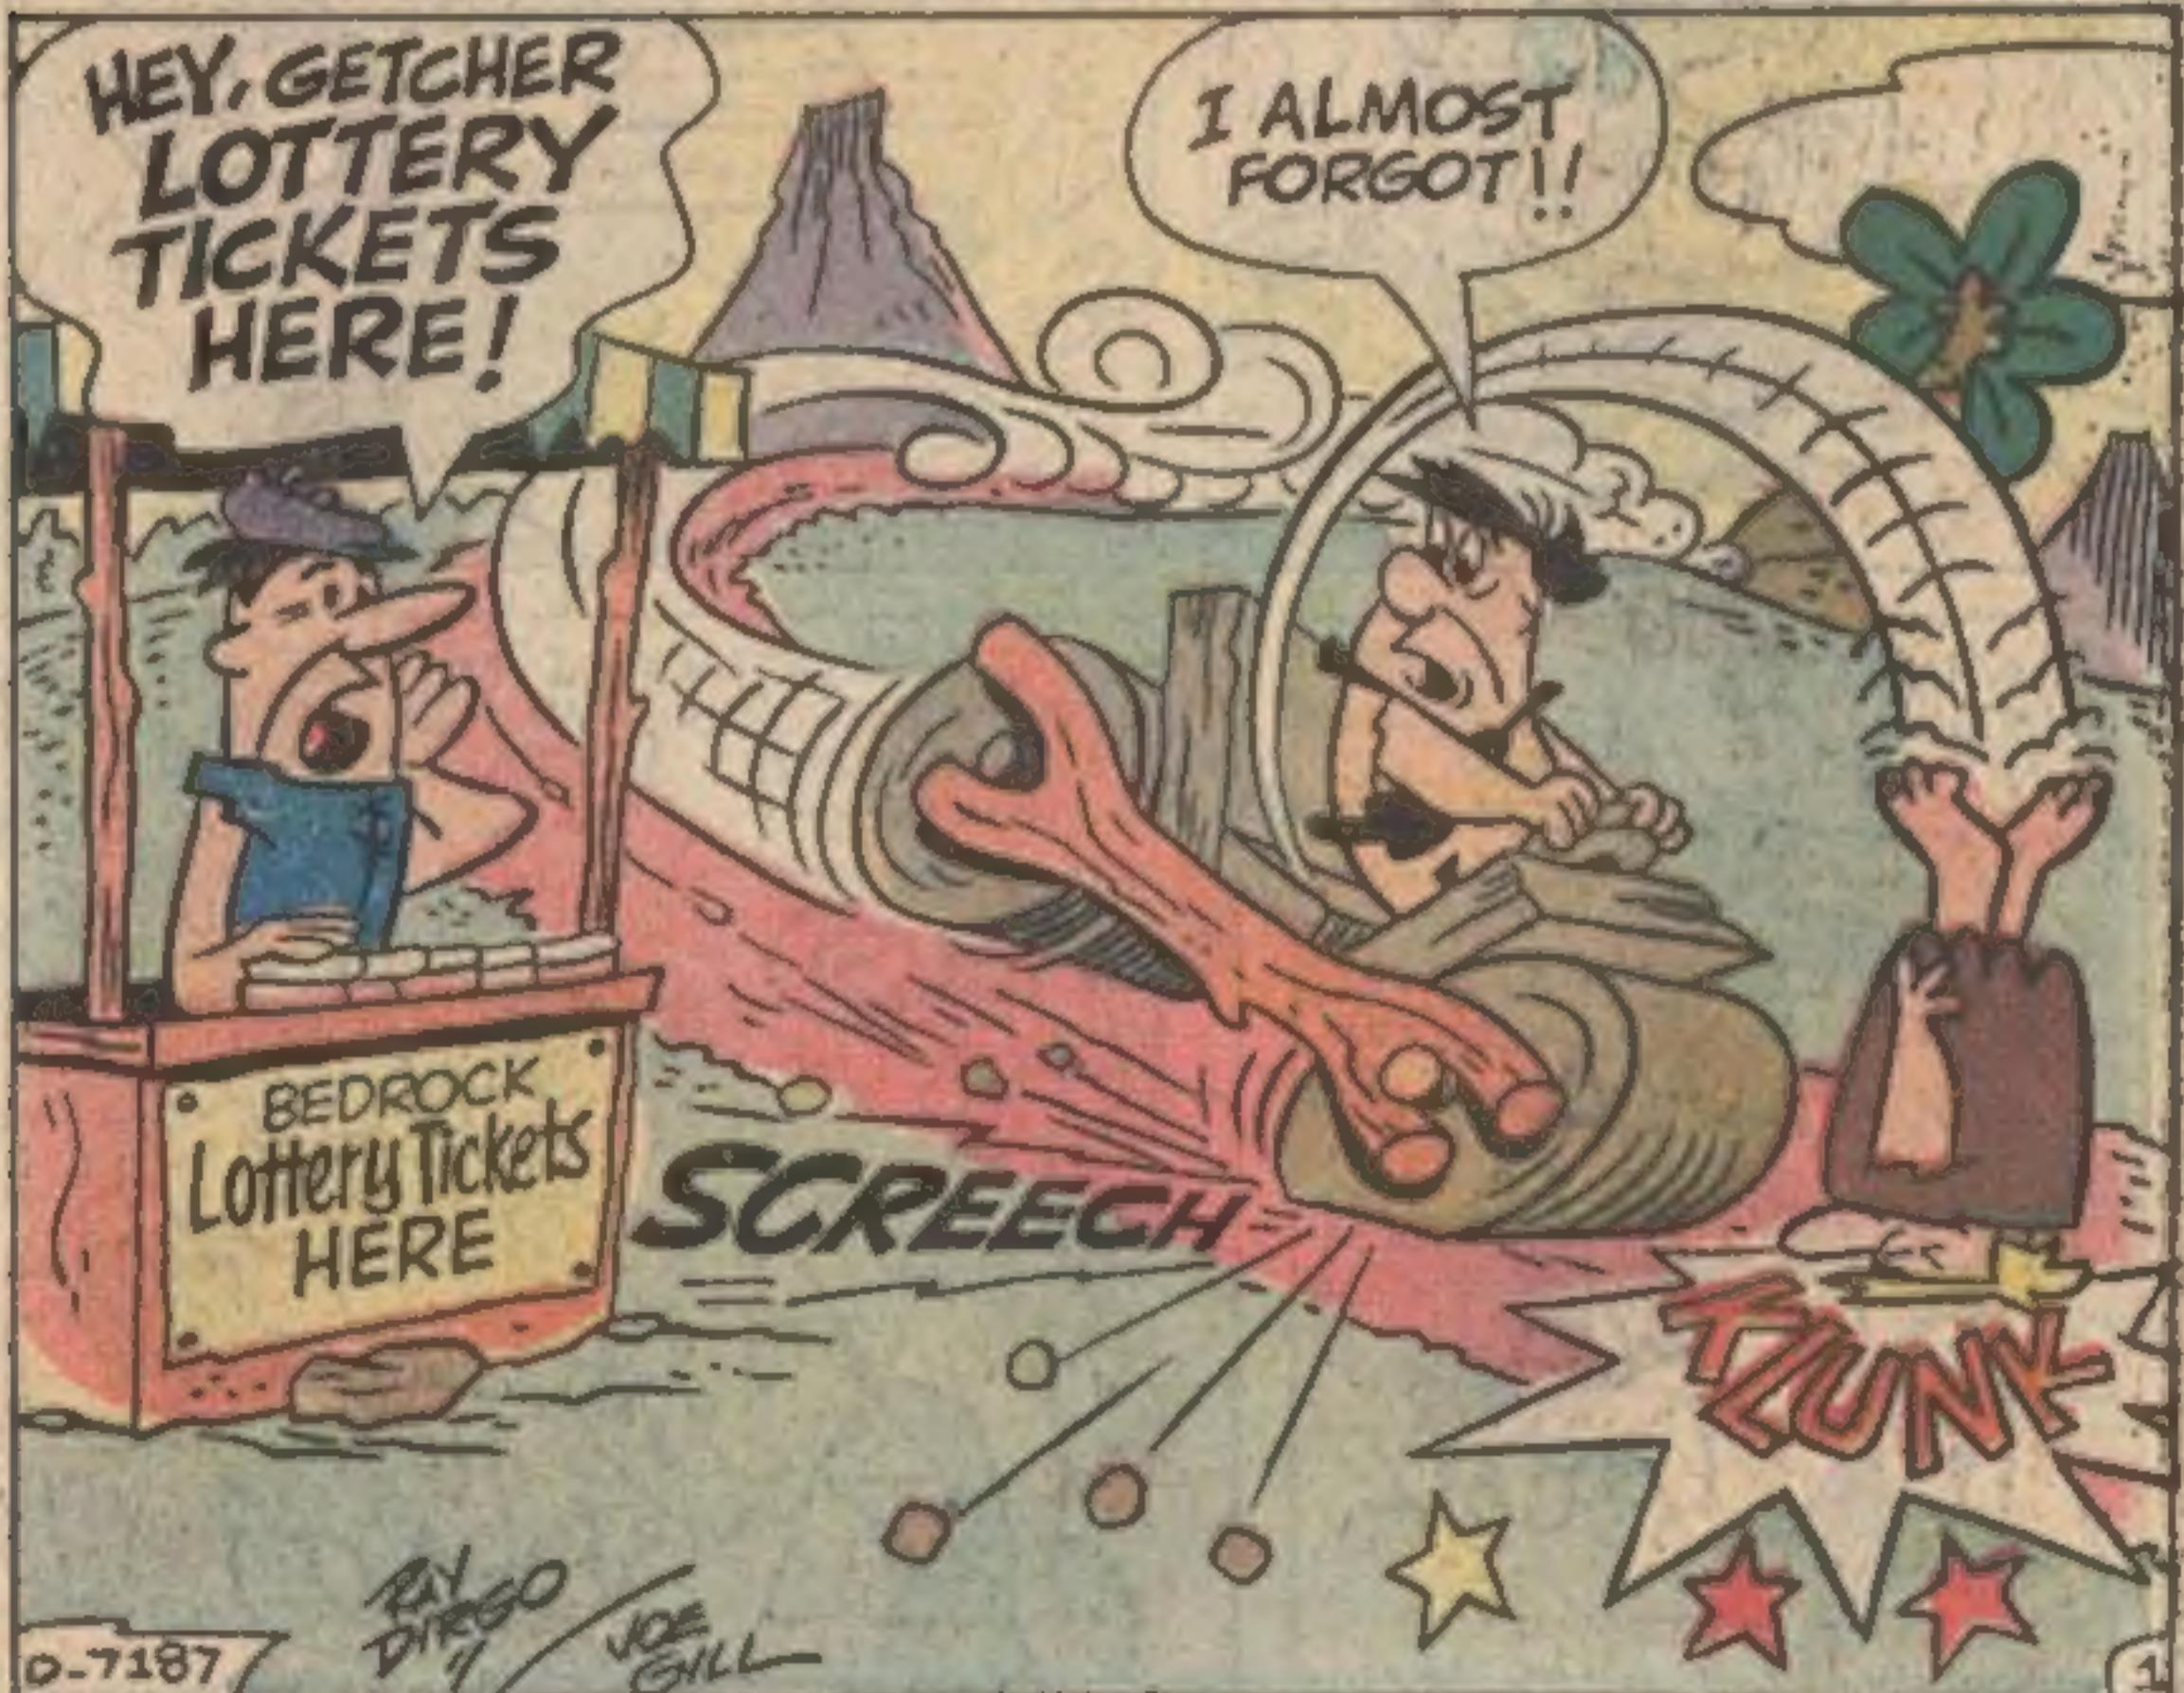

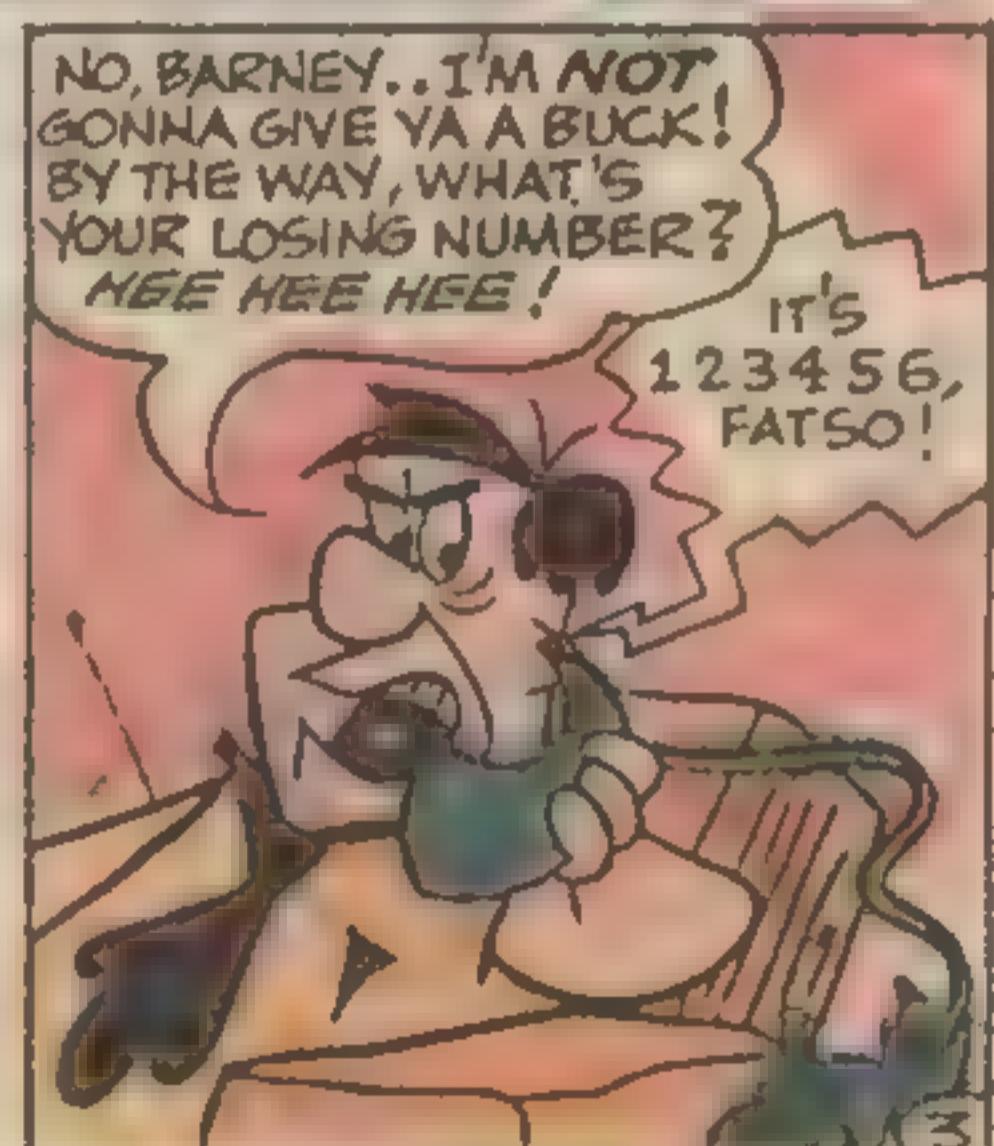

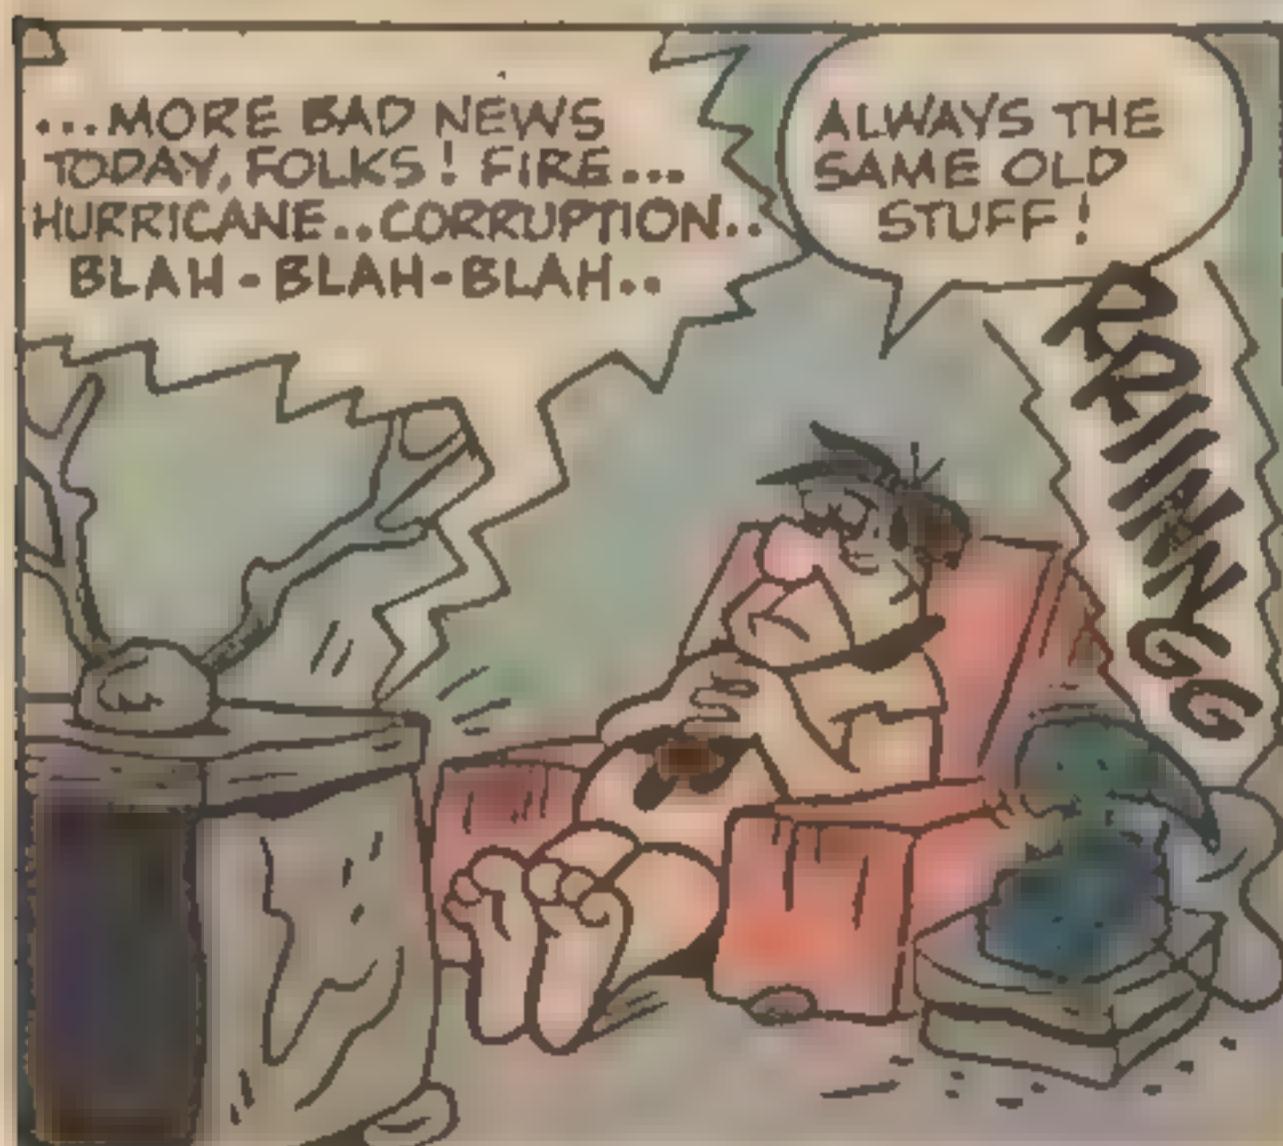

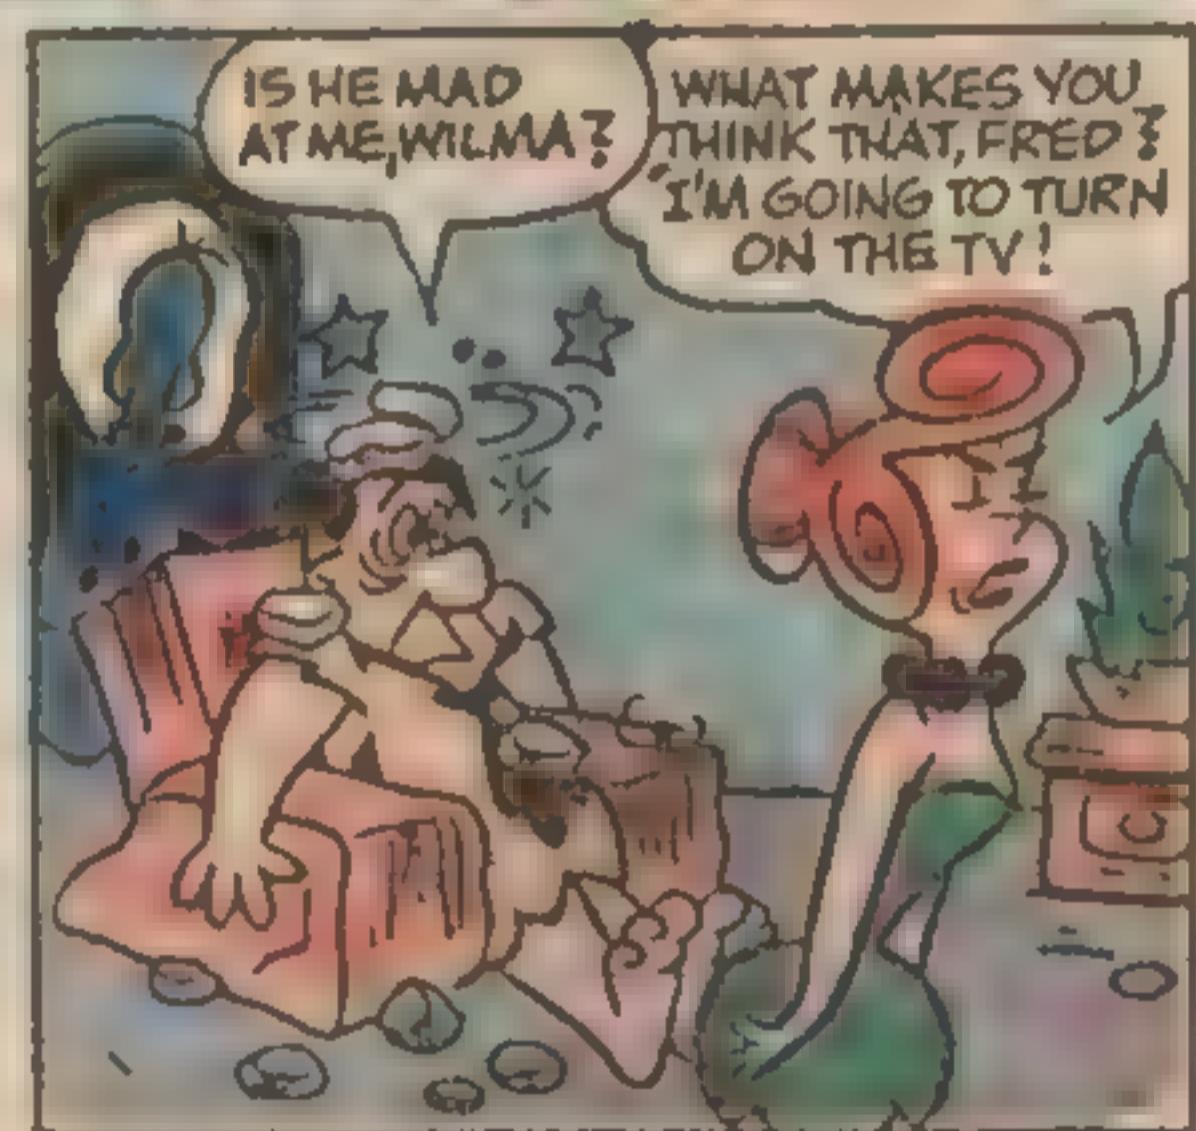

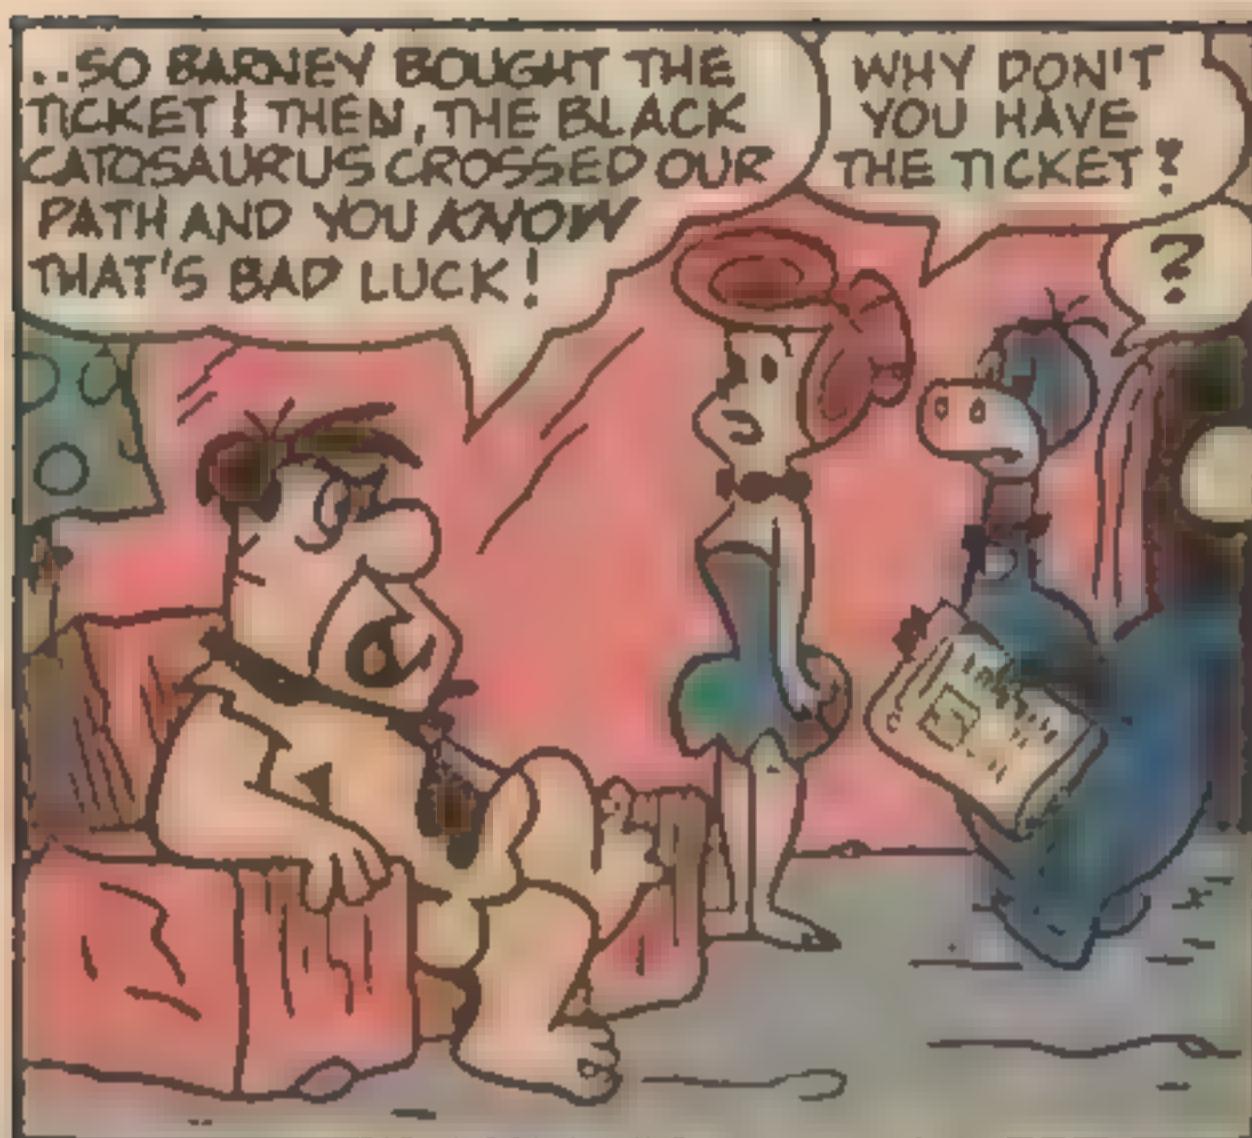

END

The FLINTSTONES "Hiya, Pardner!"

CONTINUED AFTER NEXT PAGE

The JESTING TOURNAMENT

STORY-MIKE FELLOWSKI / ART-HORT WORDEN

All of the bravest knights in the land were assembled to do battle in the annual jousting tournament held in Camelot. King Arthur sent messengers throughout the countryside to invite all of the brave knights to participate. Knights in shining armor astride gallant war horses arrived in Camelot from the four corners of the earth. Many of the knights were famous heroes and battle champions. Sir Lancelot and Sir Gawain, two of the most famous knights of King Arthur's own Round Table would give the spectators the thrill of seeing them demonstrate their combat skills.

There was also a famous knight from Spain whose name was Don Pedro. Don Pedro was a tall, thin knight who wore the emblem of a screaming eagle on his shield and chest. There was Sir Angus from Scotland. Sir Angus was a handsome knight who wore the emblem of a roaring lion on his shield and chest. Last, but not least, one of the most feared visiting knights to the tournament was Sir Pierre, the "Black Knight" from France. Sir Pierre's armor and horse were pitch black. He was the undefeated champion of all the jousting tournaments in his country. He wore the emblem of a raven on his shield and chest.

The knights had traveled so far to do combat because of the reward the victor of the jousting competition would receive. There would be a gold ball and a grand feast after the tournament in his honor. Princess Danielle, the niece of Queen Guinevere, would be escorted to both events by the knight proclaimed "Champion of the Tournament" by King Arthur. Princess Danielle's beauty was well known throughout the land. Everyone said that she was one of the most beautiful young girls in all of the kingdom. Every brave, young knight wanted the honor of being her escort.

Sir Georgie, the Dragon Slayer, the youngest knight of the Round Table, wanted to win the tournament in order to be with Princess Danielle. Georgie had first met the Princess when he rescued her from a fire-breathing dragon. King Arthur had made Georgie a knight for his heroic deed and Princess Danielle had kissed the youthful Dragon Slayer as a reward. Ever since she kissed him, Georgie had wanted to see her again.

The trumpets sounded. "That's the signal for the jousting tournament to begin," explained Sir Bragget, Georgie's squire. Sir Bragget was a knight demoted to squire for bragging about heroic deeds which he never accomplished. "Are you sure?" asked Georgie as he nervously closed his helmet's visor and picked up his lance. "I'm positive, Dragon Slayer," answered Bragget as he curled his handlebar mustache and smiled at his master's nervousness. He helped Georgie onto the back of Charger, Georgie's gallant, white horse.

"Good Luck!" yelled Sir Bragget as Georgie rode out of the stables to compete for the honor of escorting Princess Danielle to the ball. All of the knights who wanted to compete in the event were assembled. Sir Pedro, Sir Angus, Black Pierre and Georgie the Dragon Slayer, would do combat. Sir Gawain was married which excluded him from the competition. Sir Lancelot chose not to compete because he knew how important the event was to Georgie. Black Pierre challenged all of the knights. He was sure he would win. Sir Angus was the first knight to accept the challenge.

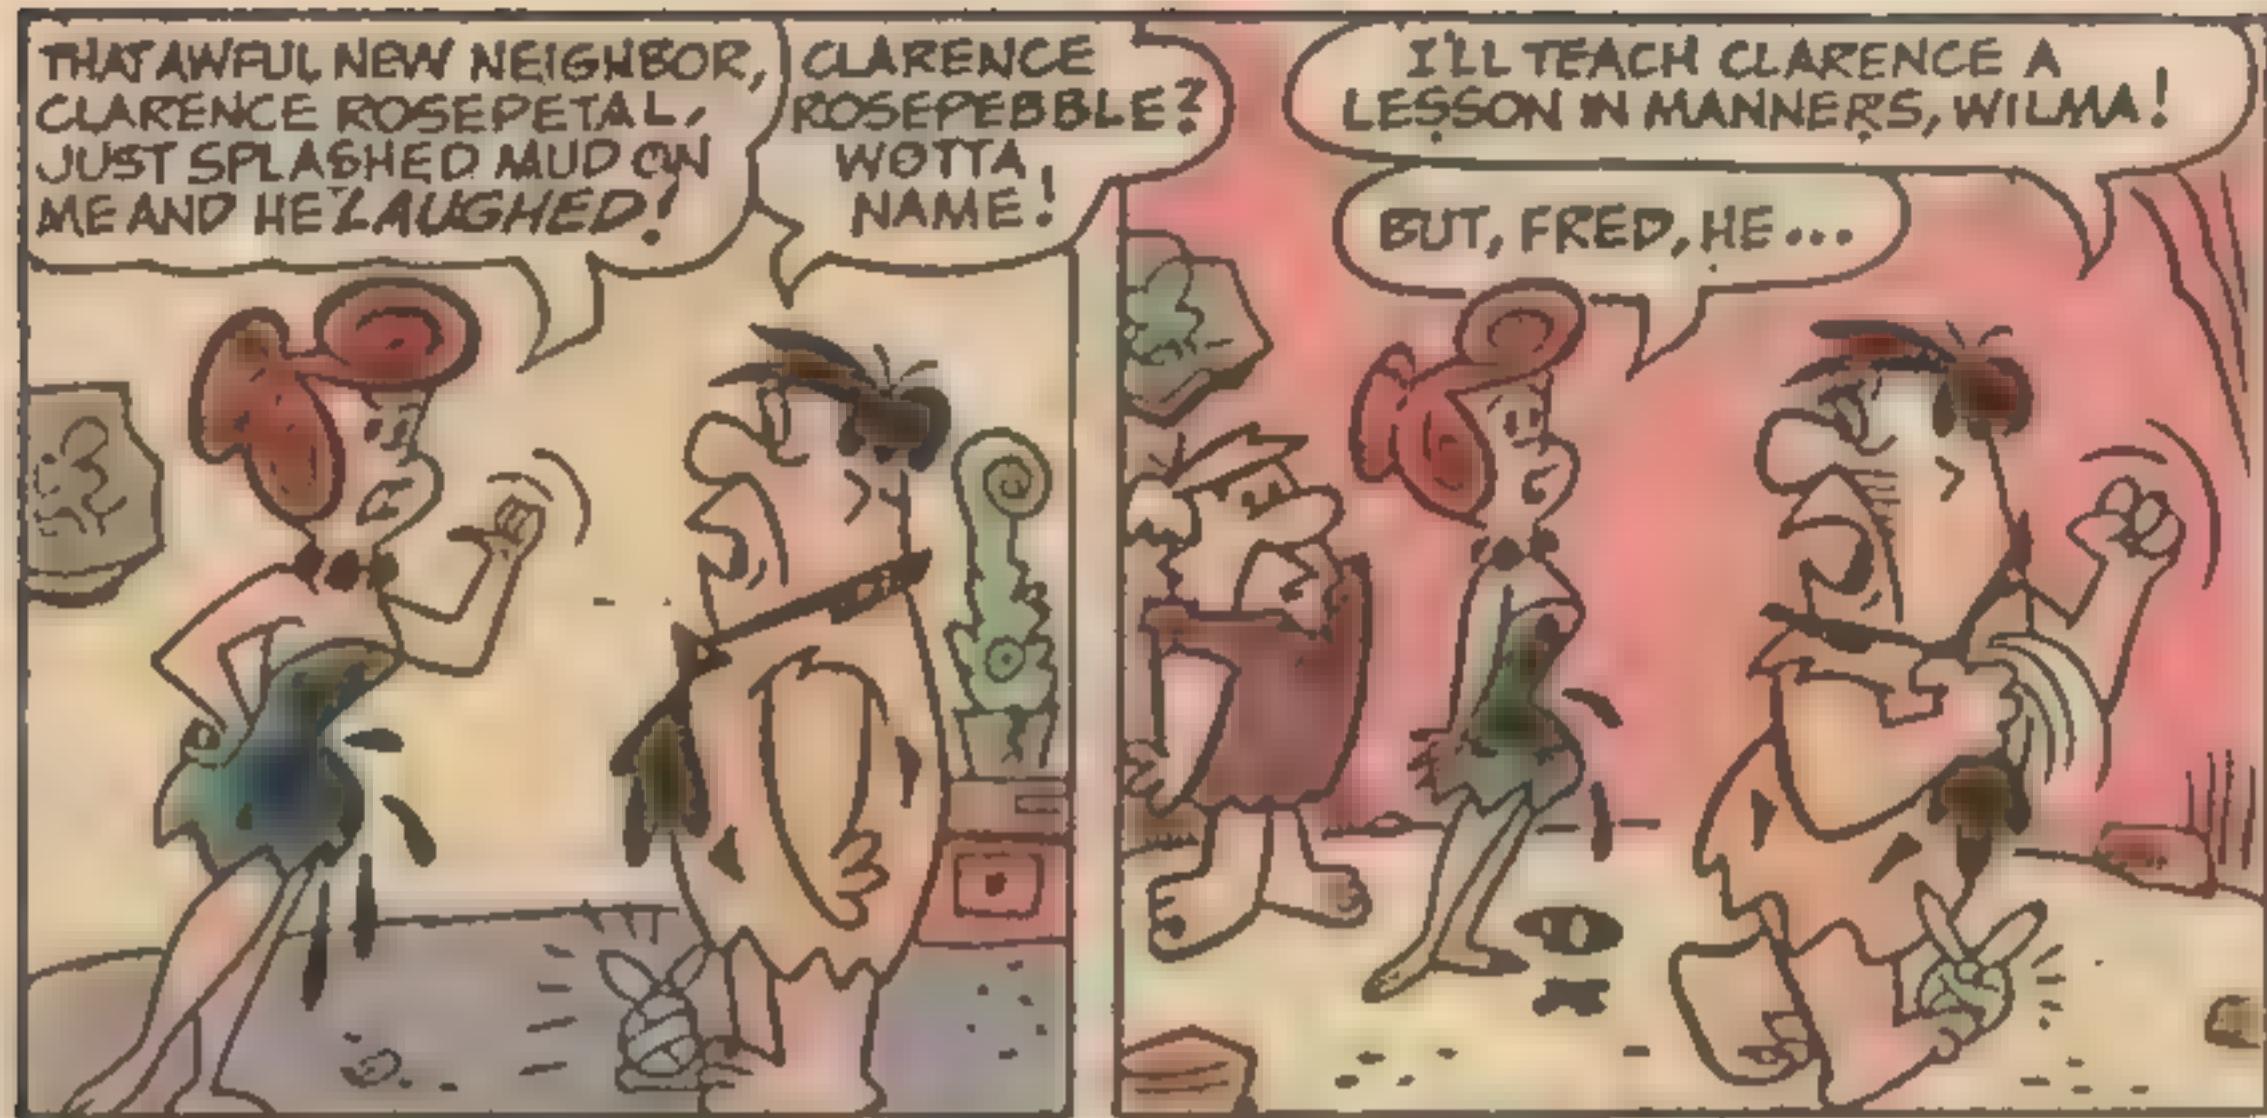

The trumpets sounded and Sir Angus and the Black Knight charged at each other. Their lances were aimed at each other's bodies. Sir Angus' lance missed but the Black Knight was on target and knocked Sir Angus off his horse and into the dirt. The Black Knight moved back to the starting point. The trumpets sounded again and Sir Pedro charged the French champion. Sir Pedro's lance missed its mark and Sir Pierre knocked the Spanish knight off his horse into the stands. Georgie was next. Sir Bragget ran to the Dragon Slayer's side before the bugle sounded the charge. "Princess Danielle told me to tell you that she wants you to win. She wants to be with you and no one else!" explained Squire Bragget just as the bugle sounded. Georgie smiled and lowered the visor of his helmet. He leveled his lance and nudged Charger's ribs with his heels. His horse charged. Georgie ducked as the Black Knight's lance whizzed past his shield missing him. Georgie aimed his lance and the point struck the raven emblem painted on Sir Pierre's chest. The Black Knight was knocked off his horse into the dirt. Georgie had won!

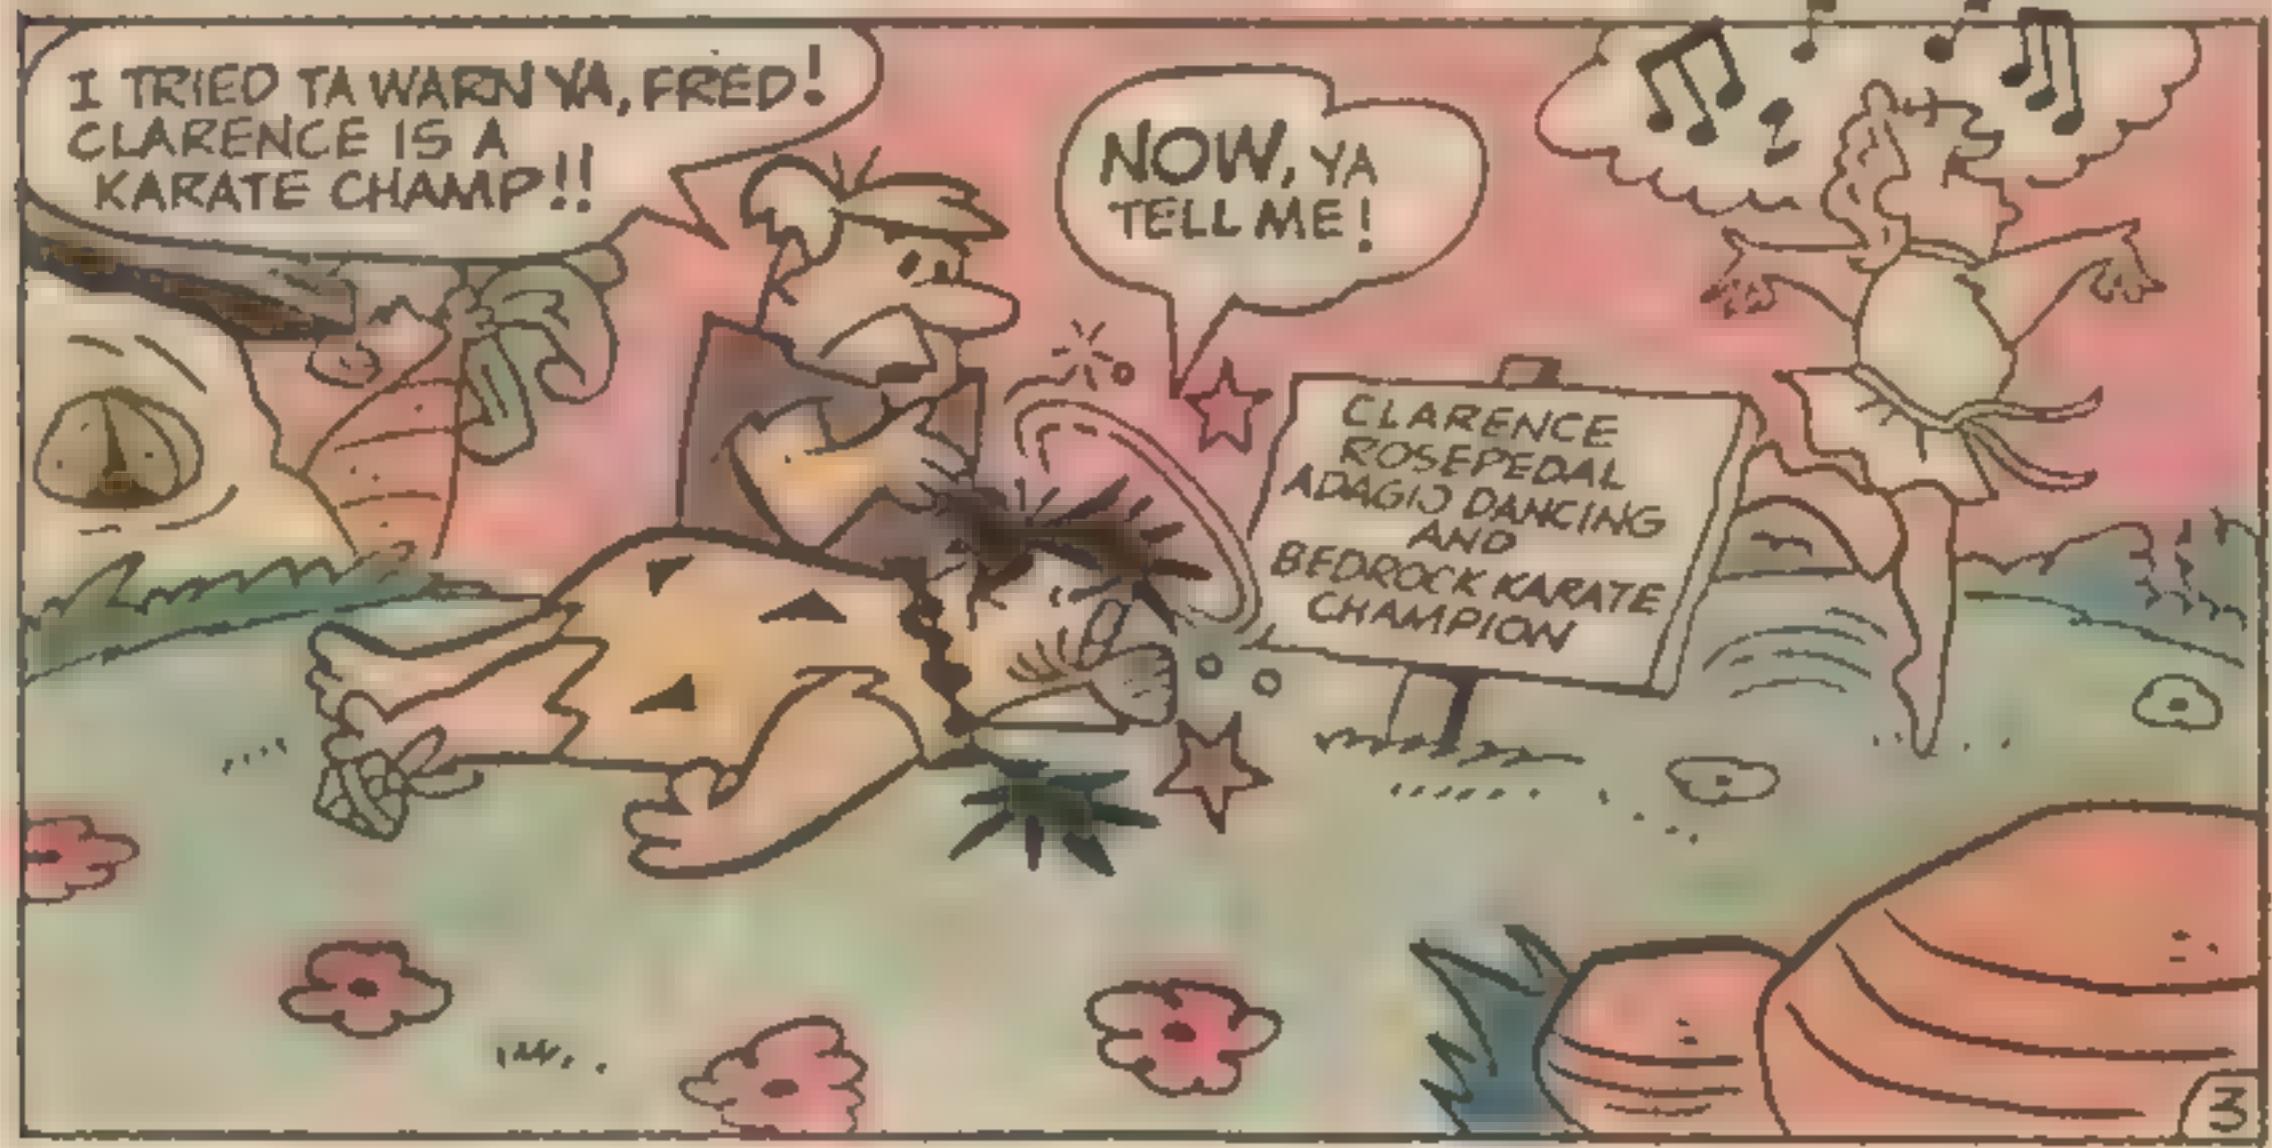

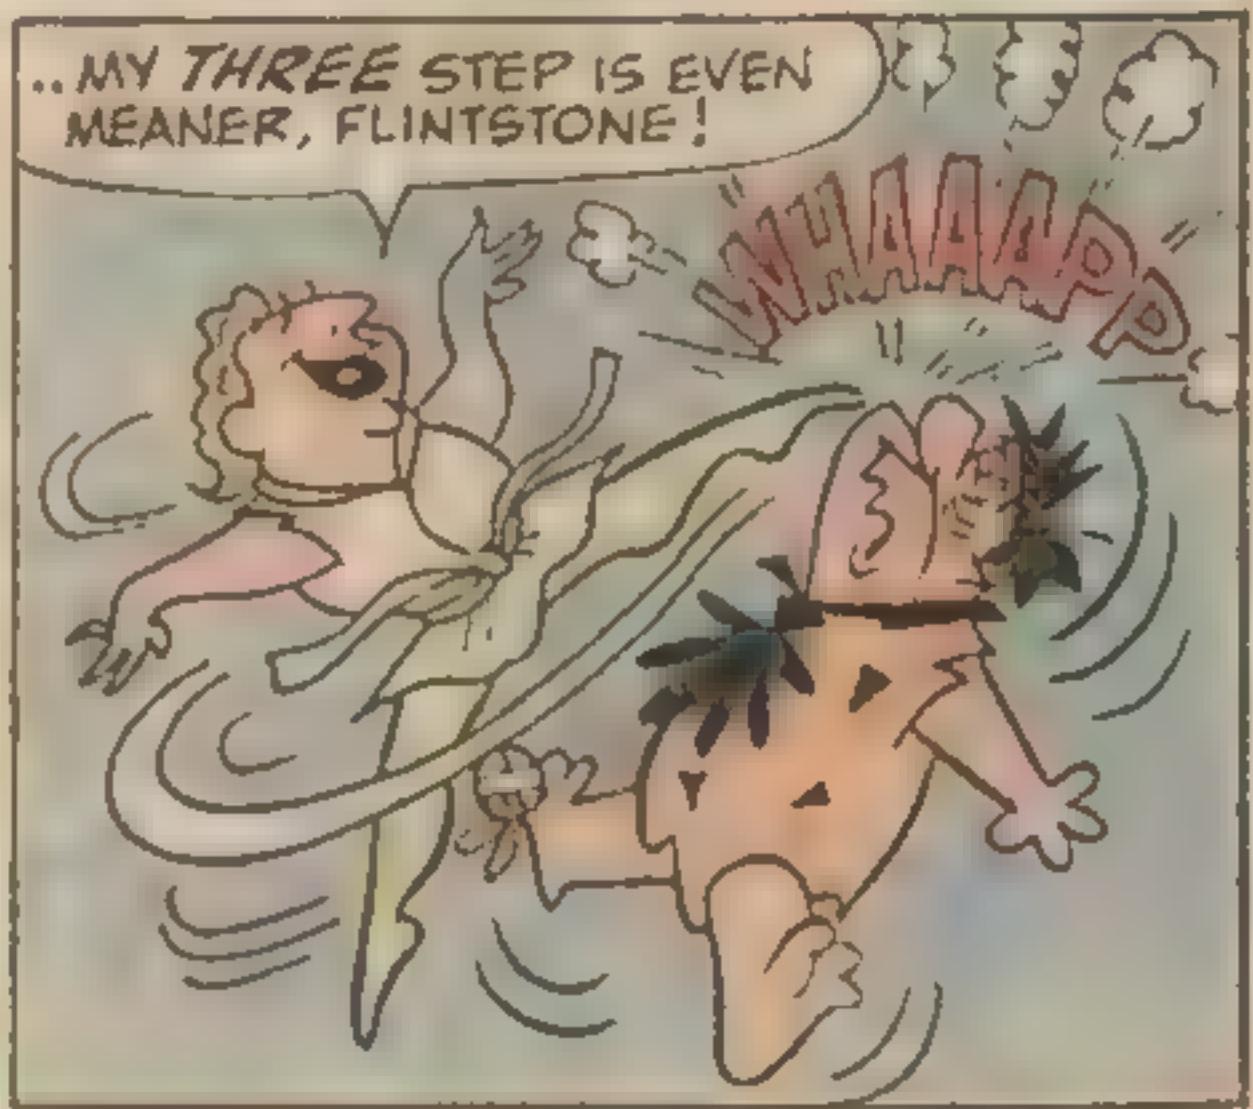

Later, King Arthur proclaimed the Dragon Slayer to be "Champion of the Tournament". Princess Danielle smiled as she took his hand. Georgie and the Princess walked off to the feast together.

The FLINTSTONES THE CHAMP OF BEDROCK

GET IN THE HOUSE AND DO THE DISHES, CLARENCE, AND STOP HANGING AROUND WITH RIFF-RAFF!

DID YA GET THE NUMBER OF THE TRUCK THAT HIT ME, BARNEY?

THE TRUCK'S NAME WAS CLARENCE ROSEPETAL, FRED!

I KNEW YOU'D GET A KICK OUT OF CLARENCE, FRED!

STOP DOIN' THAT, WILMA... IT REMINDS ME OF CLARENCE!

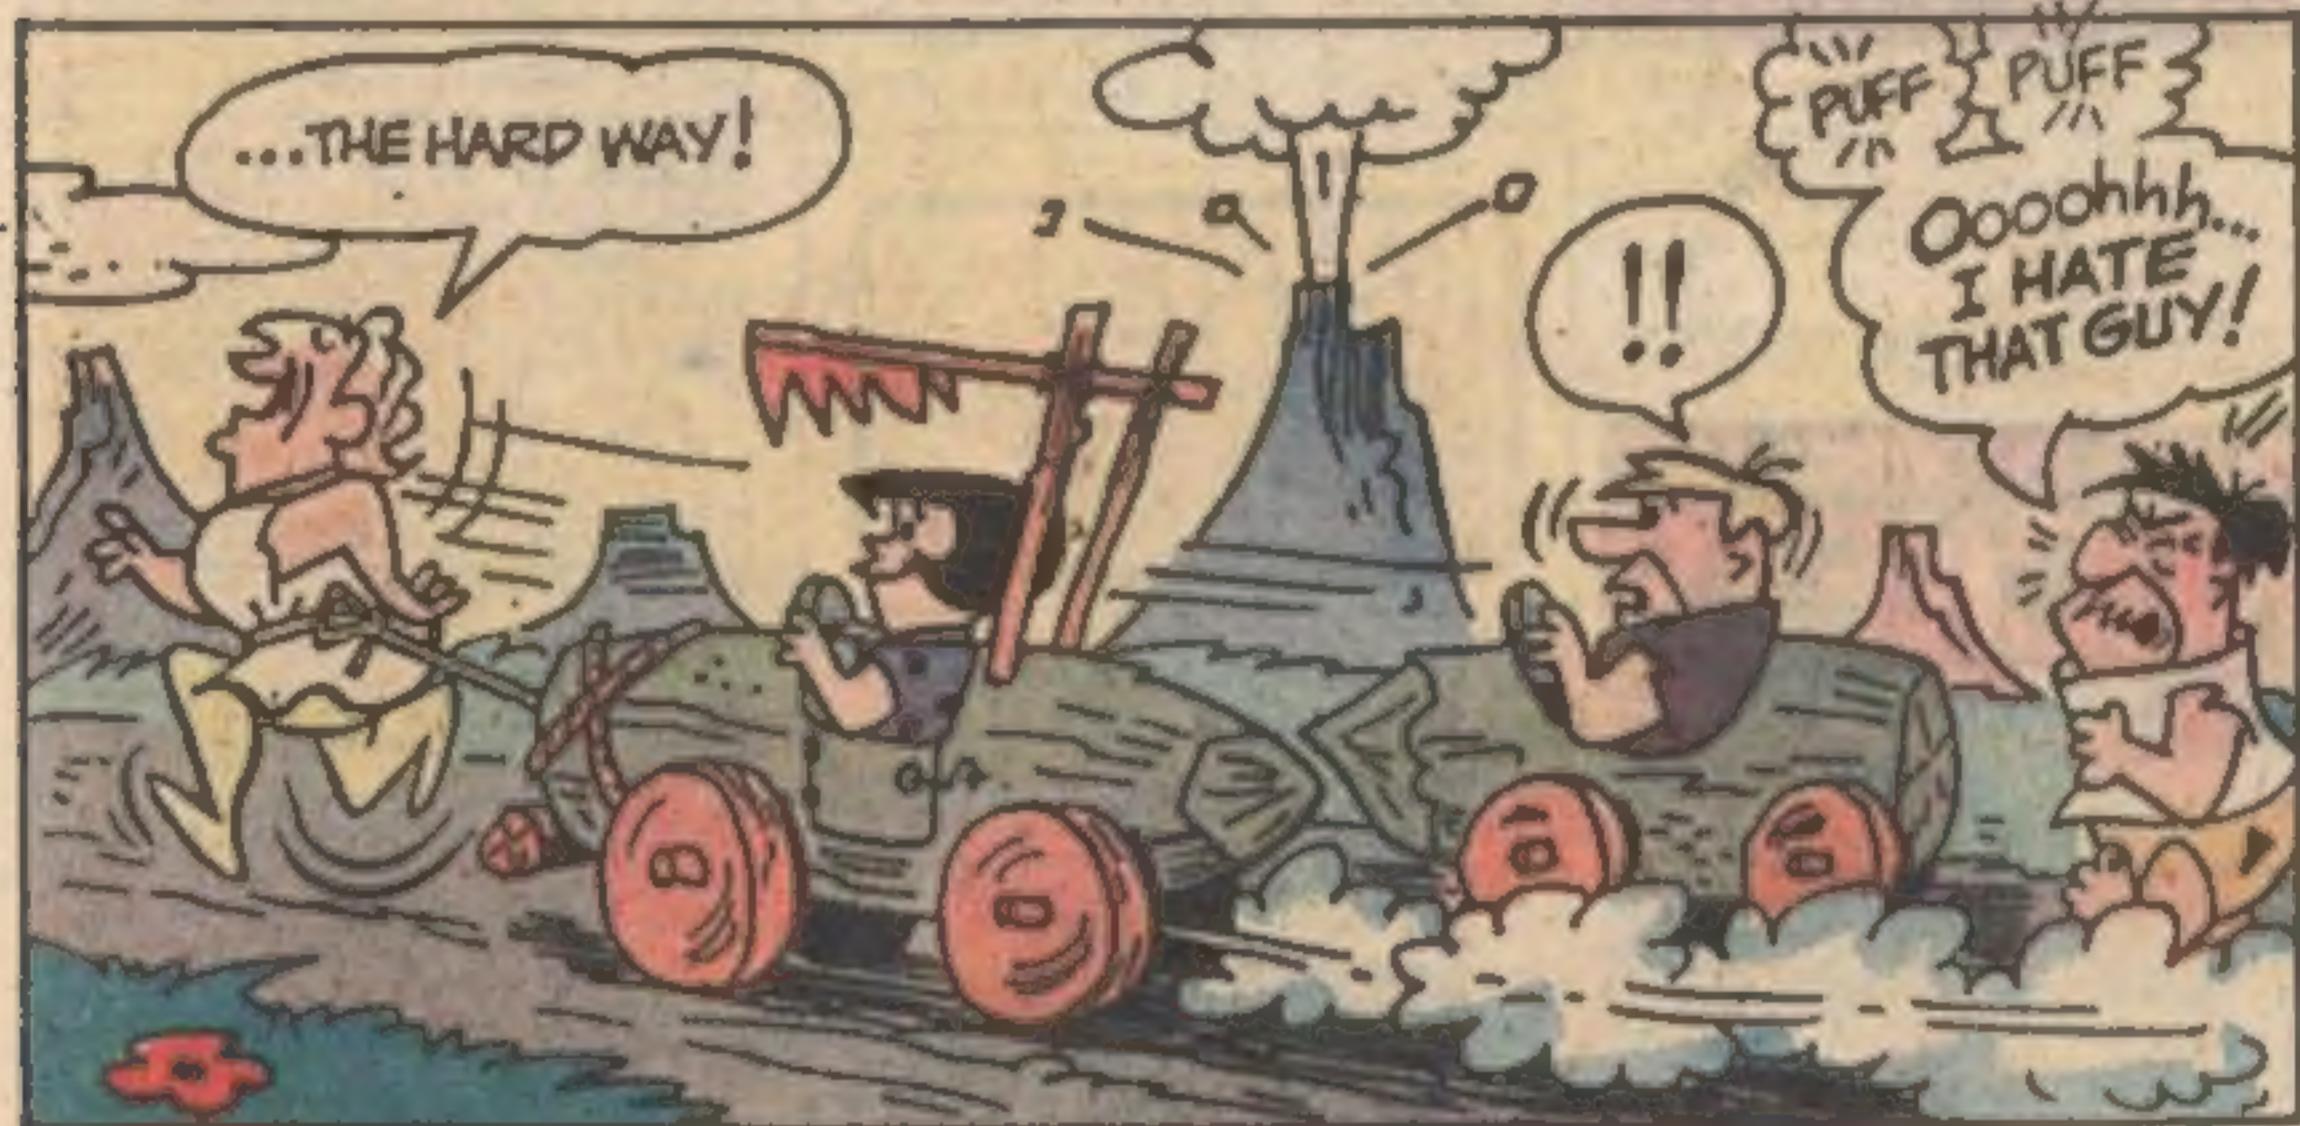

REALLY, FRED?

I'M NOT LETTIN' ROSEPETAL BEAT ME THAT EASY! HE TOOK ME BY SURPRISE... I WASN'T IN SHAPE!

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO, FRED?

I'M GONNA GO IN TRAININ', WILMA! I'LL BEAT THAT GUY YET!

CONTINUED AFTER NEXT PAGE

